Create, Connect, and Extend

Feeling Creative? Try one or more of the ideas below and share it with us on Twitter using @Sangster_ES. We'd love to see what you come up with to connect to our summer reading challenge!

- Create a Flipgrid review of something you read - use the link on the Sangster Library website!
- Design a movie poster or book trailer video for a book you want made into a movie - try using Adobe Spark!
- Build a scene from a book you read using LEGOs or other materials you can find around the house.
- Rewrite your favorite story from the perspective of someone other than the main character.
- Act out a favorite book or scene - invite family members to watch your performance!
- Write a letter or email to your favorite author and send it. They might even reply!
- Create a board game to tie in with your book.
- Go to Scratch <https://scratch.mit.edu/> or ScratchJr <https://www.scratchjr.org/> and create a scene from your story
- Construct a stand to hold your book for you while you read.
- After reading your book, complete a CSI chart by choosing a Color, Symbol, and Image to represent a character in the story.
- Find 5 objects that represent your book. Arrange them on a colorful background and take a photo. Share it with a friend and see if they can guess the book.
